Capital Inn – (FORMER Guesthouse Dúna)

<http://www.capitalinn.is/>

Capital Inn is a friendly family-run guesthouse in Öskjuhlid Park Area in Reykjavik. It is situated near the Perlan Restaurant that rotates on top of five watertanks and also near new "Geysir". At the Öskjuhlid Park Area there are walking and biking paths, green parks and unique nature. Rooms at a better rate for school groups are situated in the basements without private facilities.

The Cabin Hotel

www.hotelcabin.is

Hotel Cabin opened in May 1997 and was completely renovated at the beginning of 2007, Hotel Cabin prides itself on offering our guests warm, friendly hospitality and a high level of comfort at affordable prices.

The reception area is opened round the clock, and our friendly team of staff is always on hand to ensure that your stay is as pleasant as possible.

Each of our 250 rooms comes equipped with an extensive range of en-suite facilities, including shower/WC, telephone and satellite TV. While many of the rooms offer excellent scenic views, 27 of them have windows facing directly onto the hotel corridor. This has proved a particularly welcome option among those visitors who have found it difficult to sleep in the brightness of Reykjavík's long summer nights.

The Cabin Hotel is specially designed for the modern traveler who likes his "Home-from-Home" to be completely efficient and with all the modern facilities that makes him feel free and in touch with the rest of the world. And last but not least - for the best price possible. The Laugardalur recreational area, with its excellent swimming pool and other recreational attractions, is also within walking distance. Hotel Cabin is well-situated at Borgartún, Reykjavík, and has a beautiful view of the bay nearby. Just a short distance away is the city's main shopping area and the bustling downtown cafés and bars.
